

Tuition Team

Mr S. Afzal - Group 3 (Extra Tuition Coordinator)

Mr Afzal began his career teaching GCSEs and A Levels in Secondary schools. He has taught in both mainstream and SEN schools across the UK. Mr Afzal has held a number of posts, including being a Head of Dept. to more recently being the Headteacher of an Independent school in Warwickshire.

Mr Afzal has many years of experience in successfully guiding students to pass the 11+ examination as well as other high stake entrance examinations. He is passionate about tackling educational inequalities affecting inner-city students and has delivered interactive seminars on practical strategies teachers can utilise in the classroom to maximise student outcomes.

Mrs J Etherington – Group 1

With a career spanning over 40 years, Mrs Etherington has taught children in both the primary and secondary sectors of education.

Most recently she has taught at Ruckleigh Independent School in Solihull, working with all ages from Year 1 to Year 6. Subjects taught included English, Mathematics, Humanities, PE and Art.

Mrs Etherington is also a music specialist and currently teaches piano, keyboard and music theory to children and adults at Dorridge Music School.

Mr N Allsopp – Group 2

Mr Allsopp has 3 years of teaching experience. He has taught children from Year 1 to Year 6 including delivering intervention support and booster classes leading up to exams. He has experienced a wide variety of school environments through his work as a supply teacher.

With a specialisation in mathematics, Mr Allsopp has tutored secondary school pupils, college students and adult learners for functional skills and GCSE qualifications.
